

Teresa Porras

Miss Vogan

Teacher Cadet

02 November 2022

Evolution of Education Annotated Bibliography

Citation #	MLA Formatted Citation	Why did you use this source? What helpful information was gleaned here? (2-3 sentences)
0	“The History of Special Education in the U.S. A-State Online.” A-State Online , degree.astate.edu/articles/k-12-education/the-history-of-special-education-in-the-u-s.aspx. Accessed 26 Oct. 2021.	The “The History of Special Education in the U.S.” provides legislation and other legal background that led to all children attaining a public education regardless of their disability. It gives important dates and people that were involved in the laws and acts created and signed.
1	“How Parent Involvement Leads to Student Success.” Waterford.org, 6 Oct. 2021, https://www.waterford.org/education/how-parent-involvement-leads-to-student-success/ .	Parent engagement not only helps students but teachers as well. The article “How parent Involvement Leads to Student Success” addresses this by explaining how teachers engage parents in their child's education whether that be helping throw a holiday party or attending meetings. This article is legal because of the “every student succeeds act” and “no child left behind act” which shifted parents from just being involved to being engaged in their child's education.
2	Brooks, Ashley. “Experts Discuss the Importance of Positive Parental Involvement in Education.” Rasmussen University, 18 Nov. 2019, https://www.rasmussen.edu/degrees/education/blog/	The article “Experts Discuss the Importance of Positive Parental Involvement in Education” from the Rasmussen University focuses more on the social aspect and how it affects their students' success. It gives examples such as parents being present at school when parental-involvement-in-education/.	possible, showing their kids they are interested in their education/school work and by keeping a positive attitude about education.

3	Submitted by Redae (not verified) on July 26, et al. "Getting Parents Involved in Schools." Reading Rockets, 7 Nov. 2013, https://www.readingrockets.org/article/getting-parents-involved-schools .	The article "Getting Parents Involved in School" focuses on communicating to parents. It talks about a few ways to communicate with parents, those being e-mail messages and interactive phone systems. This helps parents stay informed of what is going on in their child's education.
4	Walden University. "Six Types of Family Involvement Every School Should Consider." Walden University, Walden University, 25 Mar. 2021, https://www.waldenu.edu/online-masters-programs/ms-in-education/resource/six-types-of-family-involvement-every-school-should-consider?v=amp .	"Six Types of Family Involvement Every School Should Consider" talks about participating in the PTA and PTO as well as participating in local advocacy and support groups. It also talks about participating in school board elections making this one on the legal side of parent involvement in school.
5	"Parent, Family and Community Partnerships." CDE, https://www.cde.state.co.us/migrant/parentinvolvement .	"Parent, Family and Community Partnerships" talks about the government involving parents in education. With this, students do better because of parent involvement leading to more school funding. This article talks a lot more on the legal and economic side.